Please be specific and detailed, using additional pages whenever necessary. Make duplicate copies for yourself and your faculty supervisor.

1. Describe the semester project you intend to undertake. What are your goals for your reading and critical work, your writing, and any additional activities that you plan? Include a statement of your essay topic or thesis and the text(s) you intend to use.

2. In what ways does this project relate to your previous work in literature, writing and contemporary letters?

3. How do you intend to demonstrate what you learn? What products will the project generate, in addition to the essay?

4. What expectations do you have for faculty response and participation? Attach the schedule of packet exchanges.

5. Cite preliminary bibliography.

I understand that the Program expects a commitment of at least 25 hours per week to my semester project and full communication with my supervisor at least once every three weeks.
